

The Presentation of the Layered Voice Analysis Technology (LVA)

The Crisis Management and Negotiation Center and Faculty of Security Studies in Belgrade organized the presentation of the voice analysis software programmes of the newest generation, used by security sector.

The software programmes presented consisted of the truth verification software called LVA or Layered Voice Analysis 6.50 technology, then support software technologies used during the decision making processes in business negotiations, software programmes for security agencies, banks, leasing houses, etc. Nemesysco is the leading company for these types of software programmes and the presentation had been held by its representative in Serbia, Mr Zoran Mitrović.