

Successful completion of the course: “Communication Skills I”

The first ever e-course organized by the Crisis Management and Negotiation Center had been successfully completed. It lasted for four weeks. Out of nine students, the seven of them successfully finished the course.

We organized the ceremony of presenting the official certificates to the attendees who passed the course, and it all happened on the premises of the “Protectagroup” company from Belgrade.